

Tell me Something about Yourself 2022

1) What information is good to include when answering this question? What do you think?

2) How long do you have to answer this question?

3) However little or much information you give, remember the following two points:

a) Include new information that is not in your resume to keep your interviewer's interest.

b) You need to base your answers on things that will bring benefit to the company, in other words your talents, skills, experience, etc. that will positively impact the company.

Following are some suggestions about what information to include:

- 1) Your origin, last educational level
- 2) Work experience
- 3) Intercultural/ travel experiences/ languages spoken
- 4) Good characteristics/ personal interests
- 5) Why you want to be a Cabin Attendant

Depending on the time you have to answer the question, some other useful information could be:

- 1) Your knowledge of the airline company
 - 2) Current and future prospects for the company (Do they have new aircraft on order, are they starting any new routes etc.)
- Your personal research and knowledge of the company will show your intention to contribute to the company and may make a difference in your interview results – In other words, 'Do your homework' about the company.
 - Use: LinkedIn, Facebook, Websites and Industry magazines to get the latest information about the company and their competitors.
